

Registration

In order to book online, you will need to fill out a registration form with your personal details. By registering your details with Art History in Focus you confirm that you agree the terms and conditions outlined in our website policy and privacy policy.

You can view and update your details and preferences in your "My Account" area on the website. In this area, members will be able to check their subscription and booking details, and also register information such as next of kin, insurance, passport details and fellow traveller details. Members will also be able to opt in or out of receiving newsletters and cancel their Art History in Focus membership if required.
